

Financial institutions legislative and regulatory reporter - British Columbia - May and June 2022

July 15, 2022

The British Columbia (BC) Reporter provides a monthly summary of BC's legislative and regulatory developments of relevance to provincially regulated financial institutions. It does not address Canadian federal financial services legislative and regulatory developments, although this information is provided by BLG separately. In addition, purely technical and administrative changes (such as changes to reporting forms) are not covered.

May and June 2022

Published	Title and Brief Summary	Status
BC Financial Services Authority (BCFSA)
June 29, 2022	Consultation on the Code of Market Conduct for Insurance Companies Legislative amendments passed in fall 2019 to modernize the Financial Institutions Act (FIA) established the requirement for insurers to adopt and comply with a code of market conduct (the Code). BCFSA has released a draft Insurer Code of Market Conduct and Supplemental Guideline and accompanying Discussion Paper for review and comment. The Code sets out fundamental principles and desired outcomes providing insurers with the	Comment by August 6, 2022 latitude to “determine the strategies, policies, processes, procedures, and controls in a risk-based and proportionate manner to achieve fair treatment of customers.” Once formally established, all British Columbia insurers will be required to adopt and comply with the Code.

June 16, 2022	BCFSA Issues Guideline on Home Warranty Claims and Complaints Management BCFSA has issued a Home Warranty Claims and Complaints Management Guideline (The Guideline) outlining expectations for all home warranty insurers authorized in British Columbia (Home Warranty Insurers) in response to ongoing claims and complaints handling issues. The Guideline addresses three areas where home warranty insurers should strengthen their processes and practices: 1. Management’s oversight of claims and complaint handling; 2. Claims and complaints handling policies and procedures; 3. Claims and complaint file maintenance. BCFSA expects that all property and casualty insurance companies consider the Guideline when setting or revising their claims and complaints management policies and processes.	Effective June 16, 2022
May 25, 2022	BCFSA Delivers Report Focused on Enhancing Consumer Protection in B.C.’s Real Estate Market

	BCFSA has announced delivery of its report, Enhancing Consumer Protection in B.C.'s Real Estate Market, to the minister of finance. The report contains advice on potential considerations of the government's proposed homebuyer protection period, commonly referred to as the cooling-off period, for residential real estate sales, as well as advice on additional consumer protection measures.
Legislation
June 2, 2022	Amendments to Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act by Professional Governance Amendment Act, 2022 Professional Governance Amendment Act, 2022, S.B.C. 2022, c. 19 (Bill 21), received royal assent on June 2, 2022. The act is aimed at increasing consistency and improving best practices among registered professions in the province. Under section 142.1 of the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act, the government may designate specific activities for the purposes of the act, with certain exceptions. Bill 21 exempts activities in relation to the Professional Governance Act (except section 3 of Schedule 1 of the act, which deals with applied science technologists and technicians of British Columbia) from the application of this provision.
